

Nominate a Deserving Woman for the 2018 Angeline Award

Since 1991, the Ursuline Sisters of Louisville have recognized women for their outstanding service and dedication with the Angeline Award.

A nominee must meet the following criteria:

- Demonstrates Christian leadership as a disciple of Jesus Christ by being actively involved with challenges that face women and families today, such as illiteracy, poverty, violence, abuse or addictions.
- Reflects a contemplative love of God resulting in an openness and eagerness to serve the needs of others (charism of the Ursuline Sisters).
- Currently has a personal connection to the Ursuline Sisters of Louisville through ministry, professional association, education, relationship or common goals.
- Is able to receive the award in person at a ceremony to be held on October 20, 2018, at the Ursuline Motherhouse in Louisville, KY.
