Dear Friends,

The autumn brings with it the fruits of the labors that are part of the spring planting and summer growing seasons. Those small seeds and seedlings planted months earlier, or the vines and fruit trees attentively cared for over many months bear such riches. So true of you, our benefactors! This issue of the DOME contains recognition of each of you who has given to the Ursuline Sisters this past year. Your generosity through in-kind and financial gifts fills us with deep gratitude.

As an expression of our gratitude, I offer two thoughts from our congregation’s events this past July. The first of these thoughts is the message from the rich and uplifting days of the Ursuline Convocation that took place in early July in Cincinnati, Ohio. Every third year the North American Ursuline sisters, associates, colleagues, and friends gather to share about our mission and ministries. This year participants came from Canada, Mexico and the United States.

The 2013 Convocation had as its theme “Angela [Merici]’s Radical Gospel Vision: Expanding the Circle . . . .” As you may recall, over 475 years ago in Italy, Saint Angela Merici founded the Ursuline way of life that remains a guiding light for us. The invitation to expand the circle or welcome the unknown requires a willingness to be open to the new, to the life unfolding around us. Theresa Butler and Judith Wimberg, the Convocation Co-chairpersons, described this invitation of expanding the circle as:

...[to] live the gospel and bring a message of hope to our world today...[an] openness to how the Spirit might lead us...and [to] identify how we might expand our circles as we step into our future...[to] be open to the Spirit whom we beg to come among us and, as St. Angela counsels, “Be happy together.” (from the Letter in the 2013 Convocation Program)

Thank you for expanding your circle of life to include the Ursuline Congregation and our mission. Our partnering leads us to live our futures more fully in union with the Loving God who created and cares for us deeply. For sure, it brings the Ursuline Sisters happiness to know that you are with us.

The second of the thoughts I offer you comes from our congregation’s Missioning Service in late July. To guide their living during 2013-2014 Sisters, Associates, and co-workers were called forth by name to be sent with this urging:

These six words invite us to see God present in the unfolding of each day, calling us to have “Faith is the realization of what is hoped for and evidence of things not seen.” (Hebrews 11:1) To be willing to say “yes” to whatever comes requires us to be open or available to what is right here in front of us, believing much good and spiritual deepening can come from the acceptance. This urging from our congregation’s Missioning Service connects with a passage from Mother Theresa of Calcutta, which I read several years ago and which still guides me in simplifying my days:

“Love does not grandstand.

Like water, it is humble and unstoppable. Love does not try to fix the whole world. It is enough to plant seeds of kindness and justice everywhere we can.

I never look at the masses as my responsibility. I look at the individual. I can only love one person at a time. I can only feed one person at a time. Just one, just one...So you begin – I begin.

I picked up one person -- maybe if I didn't pick up that one person, I wouldn't have picked up forty-two thousand.

The whole works is only a drop in the ocean. But if I didn't put that drop in, the ocean would be one drop less. Same thing for you, same thing in your family, same thing in the community where you live.

Just begin...one, one, one.”

May you be richly blessed to keep saying “yes” in expanding your circle of faith in God’s love for you. Truly, through our individual choices made one by one each and every day, we can and do give much to others and come to know our God evermore clearly.

The Cincinnati Ursulines, the Brown County Ursulines and the Company of St. Ursula hosted the North American Ursuline Leadership Conference (NAULC) Convocation on July 4-7 in Cincinnati, Ohio. Cincinnati was the site of the very first Convocation in 1992, and the return to the city was the first time in 21 years.

The gathering of 200 included Ursuline Sisters (with one sister from India), members of the Company, Associates, Companions in ministry, colleagues from the USA, Canada, Mexico and friends. Keynote speakers Sue Scharfenberger, OSU, and Catherine Bertrand, SSND, collaborated to break open the theme, Angela’s Radical Gospel Vision: Expanding the Circles. Breakout sessions led by panelists highlighted topics such as peace, eco-spirituality, human trafficking, new forms of Angela’s vision, “my lived experience of St. Angela”, the call to be prophet and much more. The challenge was to envision the future for the followers of Angela in all walks of life.

Benefactors Mass & Lunch

Community Days kicked off with Mass and Lunch recognizing all benefactors who contribute to the sisters’ ministries, care and greatest needs. The gathering was attended by 64 Ursuline benefactors who were within driving distance of the event as well as 70 sisters and employees. The homily and reflections from Sr. Ruth Ann Haunz embraced the theme of hospitality and God’s offer of a covenant relationship and exchange of mutual faithfulness.

Associate Covenant Ceremony

The Associate Covenant Ceremony took place at the Ursuline Motherhouse with the unifying theme “We Are Called.” Thirteen Louisville Associates, accompanied by their Ursuline Sister companions, signed their renewal covenants. These Christian women and men maintain an independent lifestyle while embracing the charism of foundress Saint Angela Merici and the Ursuline Community. This annual event recognizes the Ursuline Associate’s response to their special calling. Several associates shared their experiences of being called and how they pursue this calling in their lives. As one might expect, there was a rich diversity in their callings, a diversity that reflects how many lives are touched when we follow our hearts and our passions. Associates in geographical locations outside the Louisville area renew their covenants on site.

At the end of the ceremony, the Associates and Companions turned to bless each other in the Motherhouse Chapel.

Missioning & Blessing Ceremony

Ursuline Sisters, Associates and co-workers gathered in the Motherhouse Chapel for the Missioning of sisters and associates and the blessing of co-workers. The theme “for all that will be – YES” was woven in responsorials and song. Sr. Martha Jacob’s missioning reflection celebrated our calling from God’s spirit within us; for justice in our everyday world; to open our eyes to his daily presence wherever we are; and to stay positive despite negative thoughts, discouragements and worries.

The Missioning and Blessing for The Ursuline Sisters residing at Mercy Sacred Heart nursing facility followed.

Jubilee Liturgy

A large gathering of Ursuline Sisters, employees, Associates and friends attended mass in the Motherhouse Chapel in Louisville, KY to celebrate the Jubilee years of thirteen sisters. The Jubilarians living in Mercy Sacred Heart nursing facility were able to attend with assistance, giving everyone a chance to honor all of this year’s celebrants at liturgy. The homily and reflections from Sr. Helen O’Brien talked about Jesus’ parable of the vine and the branches. Each of us, as branches, must remain close to the vine (God) to survive and bear fruit. The Jubilarians have certainly demonstrated their connection to the vine with fruitful ministries in their 85, 75, 70, 60 and 50 years of commitment and service. The liturgy included an invitation to all the Ursuline Sisters to renew their vows and concluded with the recessional song, “Veni Angela,” written by an unknown Ursuline Sister many years ago.
Our relationship with God is certainly personal. We each relate to the Divine Mystery in our own way. One may be formal, using traditional prayers and rituals. Another may sit in silence aware of God’s invitation to “Be still and know that I am God.” Someone else may speak to God as informally as Tevye from Fiddler on the Roof.

Yes, our relationships with God are uniquely personal; and, they are never meant to be private.

What we receive we are to share. It is a paradox that runs counter to what our culture often teaches – in order to have, we must possess and accumulate. In God’s ultimate reality, also known as kingdom, in order to have we must give freely of what we have received: time, talent, treasure and love.

The Angela Merici Center for Spirituality (AMC) is a ministry of the Ursuline Sisters. Its mission is to provide opportunities for individuals and groups to grow in a contemplative love of God that results in an openness and eagerness to serve the needs of others. In light of this mission, the director depends upon the advice of women and men who are willing to freely share their insights, expertise and wisdom so that the opportunities offered are timely, of high quality and meet the needs of those who might attend. It is my honor to introduce you to the newest members:

Father Bob Ray is recently retired from the pastorate; but that does not mean that he has stopped serving. He is on staff at the St. Luke Center, which is an outreach ministry to priests, deacons and religious, supplies sacramental ministry in areas of need and is serving on the AMC Advisory Board. Father Bob was drawn to serve on this board because of its mission, realizing that spiritual hunger is “timeless and evident in our culture....I hope to contribute to the collaborative effort in discerning the spiritual need of the people of our day. Together, I believe we will find creative and effective means to respond to these spiritual needs.”

Patricia Turner is a retired Jefferson County Public School librarian, currently on staff at Shively Area Ministries in Southwest Louisville. She is no stranger to the Ursuline Sisters. As an Ursuline Associate, Patricia has attended many AMC programs, including the School of Christian Living. “I am honored to be able to participate in planning new offerings for the AMC.” Her desire is to see the charism of Angela Merici, foundress of the Ursuline Sisters, reach beyond the Ursuline Campus to fill the spiritual hunger of people in many locations. “I hope [the advisory board] will be able to present a variety of programs and facilitators that will have a greater outreach. I am hopeful we can offer more interfaith opportunities and, of course, programs that will attract younger people.”

Kevin Thomas, PhD, is an assistant Professor in the Annsley Frazier Thornton School of Education at Bellarmine University and says he was drawn to be on the board because of AMC’s mission. “In this spirit, I hope to serve the AMC by assisting the center through my expertise in technology to reach a broader audience through social networking.”

Glenn William, DMin, is a pastoral counselor and the executive director of St. Matthews Pastoral Counseling Center. “What draws me to joining the board at AMC is the critical importance of spiritual direction. One does not progress far in this life of faith without it. As a pastoral counselor and spiritual director I often sit with persons on the boundary between soul-spirit and soul-ego. I come to AMC with no agenda other than to be faithfully present to discern the interaction between AMC’s mission and the world it serves.”

It is only right that these four individuals should be introduced in the issue of The Dome that acknowledges and extends great gratitude to all those who support the Ursuline Sisters. I have no doubt that Jesus would respond, “Well done good and faithful servants.”

i Psalm 46: 10
ii Matthew 25: 21
Dear Sisters, Associates and Friends,

On a personal note, we are in the middle of the school year and thought you might like to know what the four of us are doing. Sister Yuli is teaching the pre-school children in the Callao school, Santa Angela Merici. Towards the end of August, she gave a class regarding the Montessori Method of Teaching Children to grade-school teachers in Tarma (central Peru).

While Sister Carol was with her Ursuline community in Toledo, Ohio and visiting with family; the group of women practitioners who work with her in energy medicine in Carmen de la Legua, continue to bring this holistic approach of healing for the well-being of many patients.

Sister Sue continues to facilitate meetings for other religious communities, attended our own community meetings during Community Days in Louisville and visited with family and friends.

Rehabilitation Center Is Curing the Cultural Stigma of Being Disabled

Presently in Peru, a nation-wide medical strike by the doctors and nurses is finally being resolved. This strike is very alarming at this time due to the outbreak of the AH1N1 Flu, sometimes called the “Swine Flu.” According to the Ministry of Health, there have been 32 deaths and 546 severe cases. Families are trying to take precautions against the further spreading of this illness, especially for the children.

As I write my thoughts regarding the service of the Rehabilitation Center for Disabled Persons in San Miguel, Cajamarca, an eleven-year-old boy comes to my mind, and I have the urge to start with the words, “Once upon a time.” Juan is a “walking success story with a smile on his face,” and I must add that his mother now radiates more maturity and confidence in herself as a person. How did this happen? With the help of a compassionate mayor in Peru, who made it possible for Juan to have the necessary surgery at Children’s Hospital in Lima last summer. Yet this mayor and his understanding council did not do this alone. With the help of families and institutions INSIDE AND OUTSIDE of Peru, Juan’s mother (who traveled to Lima for the first time) had funds for fares, lodging and meals, and even had the use of a new wheelchair to take Juan long distances as she accompanied her son in his surgery to remove the congenital tumor on his forehead. Formerly he needed assistance to stand and walk on his own. After therapy in Lima, he now moves about freely with encouragement from family and friends.

Of course, Juan and so many others, continue to need therapy (physical and language therapy as well as family counseling). The distance to Lima from Cajamarca is over 350 miles (rough travel over land). Trujillo, with a little less distance, is the nearest city to San Miguel that has the possibility of therapy. But both cities require much effort and funds for the families involved. Thus, the Support Group for Special Needs Individuals, with the help of many friends and organizations, are finishing the construction of second floor of The Rehabilitation Center for Special Needs Persons, so that the patients with their families will be able to have these therapies in San Miguel. The Group has had three Therapy Campaigns announced by radio to the One Physical Therapist from Lima people in the towns of the province of San Miguel for the patients and families of special needs individuals for physical and language therapy. In all three sessions, the response has been overwhelming. We now have the good fortune to have an official agreement with the University Alas Peruanas, who are preparing to send students in their practicing years to our Center for Rehabilitation.

On August 8th and 9th of this year, two members of the professional team of La Clinica San Juan de Dios, Lima (under the supervision of Brother William Pintado Saavedra of the congregation Hermanos Hospitalarios) came to San Miguel for meetings with the Support Group. Brother gave orientation and suggestions regarding the Rehabilitation Center and its best service to the people of the province. He also met with the families of the special needs persons and older patients in order that they could express their needs and opinions as well.

Soup Kitchen

The parish soup kitchen for school children in San Miguel is functioning very well, thanks to the enthusiasm of pastor Padre Juan Ruiz Peña; the mothers who cook; the volunteers who graciously help each day; the 115 students who participate; and of course the many good people who help to financially support this Corporate Work of Mercy for needy families. From Monday through Friday grade school and some high school students enjoy a hot meal between 11.30 am for the smaller children and 1.30 pm for the older students. Many of our visitors smile as they see the students making the Sign of the Cross and praying the prayers before and after meals. The “charge” for their meal each day is a piece of firewood, so that the six mothers on the team that week are able to cook the meal.

As I close this article I am reminded of a small phrase in our Book of Celebrations for the rural catechists: Jesus simply “walked through this life doing good.” This is what we all try to do.

Our prayers join yours always,
Sue, Kathy, Yuli and Carol

Support is a Parish Thing!

For the past 4 years, parishioners of St. Agnes Parish in Louisville, KY, have supported the Center for Rehabilitation for Handicapped Persons as part of their outreach efforts. The funds granted keep pushing the project forward to benefit the poor and marginalized.

“The goal of the St. Agnes Outreach Committee is to reach out with our stewardship gifts to support those groups working to help the less fortunate. The Rehabilitation Center in San Miguel is a wonderful example of the Ursuline Sisters’ seeing a need and addressing it. In reaching out to those least able to help themselves, the Center serves the whole community. We are happy to share in this ministry.”

"I was a Bellarmine student in '80 when I was given a clinical practicum placement at the Ursuline Speech Clinic with Sr. Dorothy Frankrone, O.S.U. Sister Dorothy and I became best friends, sharing our experiences and faith journeys. She has been a wonderful professional mentor in speech-language pathology and a trusted friend for many years. I particularly enjoyed dinners at the Motherhouse with Sr. Dorothy and many of the Sisters, always welcoming me. I fondly remember Sr. Dorothy showing me the beautiful chapel before Christmas each year. I will never forget the lessons I learned from Sr. Dorothy--well beyond speech-language pathology!"
